in this booklet. Some gave as much as $100,000. Some, under $500. Some donated rare and vintage wines to the Manhattan Wine Auction. Some helped grow the MBEF Endowment past the $10 million mark. Some are businesses. Some are grandparents. Some have no kids in any Manhattan schools. Every one of them, and every one of their donations, mattered.

Since the 70's, when Sacramento began its long slide to second lowest in the nation in per-student funding, it's people like you who have stood up to the ongoing onslaught and said, "No. That's not good enough. Our children deserve better."

Today, Manhattan Beach is among the top three K-12 school districts statewide, and #1 in the South Bay. Forbes has named Manhattan Beach the

#1 city nationwide for the best bang for the real estate buck. Science scores are through the roof, API scores continue to climb, and our graduates go on to some of the finest schools in the country. In many ways, Manhattan Beach schools are on a par with private schools. None of which would have come to pass without the generosity of every name listed here.

Many of us have been to charitable events where the emcee has said "I'd like to thank each of you by name. But I can't." We can. 2,896 times.

AS YOU READ THIS, the results of your generosity are about to kick in: The 2013-2014 school year begins soon, and the dollars you gave will begin paying for teachers, specialists, counselors, and everything you see in the list of grants below. MBEF is first and foremost a parent organization. We raise money from you, then determine how to use it so that it will have the greatest possible impact on your child's education. There are always unknowns. We never know just what Sacramento will choose to dole out; we only know it will never be enough for what we want for our children. But year after year, you come through, and our schools keep getting better, despite the fact that California ranks second from the bottom in per-student spending. Below are our 2013-2014 grants. We can't say it enough: Thank you.

GREAT SCHOOLS TODAY.

GREAT SCHOOLS FOREVER.

Imagine a day when our schools are safe from budget cuts. Safe from politics. Safe from economic ups and downs. Forever. Ambitious? Certainly. Yet that's precisely how long the MBEF Endowment is designed to last. Its goal: To reach a point where the return from the Fund is enough to make up for any shortfalls in school funding. So no matter what, our schools will have the level of excellence parents demand, and the community expects. Thanks to the generosity of our donors, the Endowment has reached its first benchmark: $10 million. To find out more about the Endowment, including tax-exempt giving and gift planning, go to MBEF.org/endowment.

CLASS OF 2013 FOREVER

The Class of 2013 Forever Fund is the first of its kind: a special MBEF Endowment fund to celebrate and honor the Mira Costa Class of 2013. Designed to be a legacy fund, it's one that the Class of 2013 can continue to give to as they make their way through the world, to help make sure the great schools they remember stay great. Seniors and their families seeded the fund with donations of $20.13, or more.
